

his lyf laif. ſhal leeſe it and he ſhal leeſe his lyf. for me ſhal make it ſaſe and what profit it to a man if he wyne al þe world & leeſe hi ſelf.
& do þe þing of hi ſelf for who ſo ſhamer me & my wordis. māns ſone ſhal ſhaue hi whiche he co mey in his mageſte & of þe fadris & of þe hookis angelis. And ſeie to you verli þen ſime ſtondige her. Whiche ſchulen not taſte deer. til þei ſeen þe reuene of god & it was don after þes wordis. almoſt eifte dapes. & he took petre & james & john. & he aſcende into an hyl. to preie. & while he preiete. þe hyl nelle of his cher was chengid. & his cloþing was whyt ſchynge. & lo twy men ſpaken wyþ hy. & moyses & elye weren ſeyn i manette. & þei ſayen his goping out. which he ſch nide fulfille in ierluſ. & petre & þei rat weren wyþ hy. weren heuy of ſleep. and þei wakige ſayen his manette. & þe twy me þat toke wyþ hy. & it was don whāne þei departi den fro hym. petre ſeide to ihu. co maundour it is good. þat we be here & make we her þre tabernacles. oon to þee & oon to moyses. & oon to elye. & he wiſte not. what he ſchul de ſeie. but while he ſpak þes þi gis. a cloude was maid. & on ſha deuide he. & þei dreedden. whāne þei entride into þe cloude. & a vois was maid out of þe cloude. & ſeide. þis is my dereworpe ſone. heere ze hy. & while þe vois was maid. ihu was foſidū aloone. & þei we ren ſtille. & to no mā ſeyden i po dai es out of þe vois. þat þei hadden ſeyn. but it was don i þe day ſi þinge. whāne þei came dou of þe hyl. moche peple mette hem. & lo a mā of þe cūpany. cryede & ſeide. maſter. & biſeche þee. bihold my ſo ne. for i haue no mo. & lo a ſpirit takeþ hy. & ſudenly he cryeþ & hur thly down. & todrawy hy wyþ ſo me. & vnepe he gop away alto dradþinge hy. and i preiete ri diſtuphs. þat þei ſchulden caſte hy out. & þei myſte not. & iſc anſwe ride. & ſeide to hem. & i vnſerþul geſhaciou & weyward. how longe ſhal i be at you. & ſuffre you. þei geſhaciou. & whāne he cam my. þe denel hurthide hy down. & to brayde hy. and iſc blameþe þe vn cleue ſpirit. & heeide þe child. & zeldide hy to his fadir. & alle men wondurde greetly in þe greetneſſe of god. and whāne alle mē wondri den in alle þiſis þat he dide. he ſeide to hile diſtuphs. putte ze þeſe wo dis in your hertis. for it is to co me. & māns ſone be betrayed to þe hondis of mē. & þei knewe not þis word. & it was hid before hy. þat þei feelide it not. and þei dreed den to aſe hy þis word. And a po nt entride into hem. who of hy ſchulde be gretteſt. and ihu ſeyge þe þonctis of þe herte of hy. took a child & ſettide hy biſides hy. & ſeide to hem. who eue reſſeyney þis child in my name. reſſeyney me.

& who eue reſſeyney me. reſſey ney hy. & ſente me. for he þat is leeſt amōg you alle. is þe gretteſt.
and john anſweride & ſeide. comū dour. we ſeyen anū caſtge out ſendis in þi name. & we han for bodū hy. for he ſuep not þe wy vs. & iſc ſeide to hy. wyle ze forbe
de. for he þat is not aſens vs. is